

West Virginia CNA Certification Checklist

- Complete a 120-hour State-approved CNA training and/or competency evaluation program that includes at least 55 hours spent in supervised practical training

- Pass the nurse aide competency exam consisting of written and skills performance components administered by Professional Healthcare Development

Must pass the exam within 3 attempts and 24 months of graduation from the training program.